

ESTONIA – CHAMPION OF GROWTH FOR AIRBALTIC

News / Airlines

The Latvian airline airBaltic has achieved +24% growth in passengers travelling to and from Estonia in March 2016.

Martin Gauss, Chief Executive Officer of airBaltic: “Estonia is a champion in our Horizon2021 plan. Those travelling to and from Tallinn have welcomed our new direct flights particularly warmly. Estonia is a fast growing market, and with 24% more travellers every month from that country, we are committed to offer new convenient links between Tallinn and major hub airports. We sincerely thank our Estonian customers for choosing airBaltic as their home carrier!”

In March, airBaltic carried 21 139 passengers on its flights out of Tallinn, +24% more than the same month a year earlier. airBaltic has further strengthened its offering out of Tallinn this month by launching a direct service to Vilnius with two convenient morning and evening departures and prices starting at 29 EUR. As part of its Horizon 2021 plan, airBaltic will operate 11 direct routes out of Tallinn and Vilnius in the next five years, in combination with convenient transfers via Riga.
