AIR FRANCE TO RESUME IRAN FLIGHTS

News / Airports / Routes

Air France has announced it will begin flying to Iran for the first time since 2008.

The airline will serve Teheran from Paris-Charles de Gaulle three times a week (Wednesday, Friday and Sunday) starting in April 2016.
"Air France is showing that it is ready to seize all possible profitable development and growth opportunities", said Frédéric Gagey, chairman and CEO of Air France.
Flight schedules
AF738: Leaves Paris-Charles de Gaulle at 10:30, arrives in Teheran at 18:40;
AF755: Leaves Teheran at 7:15, arrives at Paris-Charles de Gaulle at 10:55.

10 DECEMBER 2015

SOURCE: ARABIANAEROSPACE
ARTICLE LINK:
https://to.50skyshades.com/news/airports-routes/air-france-to-resume-iran-flights

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.